

Description-

A forensic science event where practical, analytical and reasoning skills of a student will be tested. Theoretical and practical rounds are conducted where students will have to find the murderer and suspect and prove their point of view in a mock - court.

RULES AND REGULATIONS –

- Use of library resources or online encyclopaedia is not allowed during the event.
- Teams will be eliminated after each round.
- 3 teams will qualify to the finals. Finals will be held on day two (13-09-14).
- Brush up on your practical knowledge in Physics and Chemistry!
- Maximum number of 3 students per team and 2 teams per school/college.